AfPP Brighton Residential
Looking Back – Moving Forward

DATES:
Friday  20 June 2014
Saturday  21 June 2014
Sunday  22 June 2014

VENUE:
University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton, BN1 9QU

Objectives:
To celebrate the influence of AfPP (formerly NATN) on perioperative practice in its 50th Year:
To inform and motivate staff, to reflect on perioperative educational developments and to network and celebrate with AfPP colleagues and partners in industry.

Programme:  Friday 20 June

14:00 - 17:00  Registration
19:00 - 23:00  Dinner on University Campus

Programme:  Saturday 21 June

07:30 - 09:00  Registration
09:00 - 09:10  Welcome from AfPP
Speaker:  Sue Lord, Head of Department, Allied Health & Medicine, FHSC&E. AfPP President
09:10 - 09:30  Aims and Objectives
Speaker:  Dawn Stott, CEO AfPP
09:30 - 10:30  Daisy Ayris Lecture sponsored by ETHICON
'Humans, Hierarchies and Hash tags - A Perioperative Journey'
Speaker:  Tracy Coates, Safety and Learning Lead, National Health Service Litigation Authority (NHSLA), AfPP Past President
10:30 - 11:30  Refreshments and Exhibition
An opportunity to network with colleagues and visit the exhibition table top stands
11:30 - 13:00  Education and Role development - What we have learnt-or have we?
Debating Panel
Demise of the ENB and the effect on nursing perioperative education and the relationships between evolving perioperative professions
Chair:  Libby Campbell OBE, MPhil, MSc, RN, RM.
Director of Nursing, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh, AfPP Past President, Retired
Speakers

Diane Gilmour, Programme Manager, Planned Care, Crawley Hospital. AfPP Past President – The demise of the ENB and the impact this had on perioperative nursing practice

Diane Gilmour, Programme Manager, Planned Care, Crawley Hospital. AfPP Past President – The independent sector’s role in developing and contributing to CPD of perioperative practitioners and ensuring the party of appropriately skilled care delivery to NHS and private sector patients wherever they are cared for.

Julie Quick, Surgical Care Practitioner, Walsall Healthcare NHS Trust. AfPP Special Interest Group, Advancing Surgical Roles – Advanced roles and their effect on the perioperative team

Paul Wicker, Head of Perioperative Studies, Edge Hill University (Ormskirk), AfPP Special Interest Group, Educators - ODP Education advancements - the highs and the lows and the future of perioperative practice

Kate Woodhead, Operating Theatre Consultant, KMW Ltd – Development of standards and perioperative audit tools over the years discussing NATN and AfPP and the impact on national standards?

Natasha Wright, Student ODP, Anglia Ruskin University (Cambridge Campus) - Student ODP - The perioperative learning environment today for students

Questions/debate with floor

13:00 - 14:30 Lunch and Exhibition

14:30 - 15:30 Sketch – Perspectives, Checklists and Challenge
Speaker: Breathe out Theatre

15:30 - 16:15 Siobhan Rankin Lecture sponsored by Swann Morton
The journey towards professionalization: Exploring the perceptions and attitudes of sterile services staff
Speaker: Angela Cobbold, Senior lecturer, Anglia Ruskin University (Rivermead Campus)

16:15 - 16:45 Refreshments, Exhibition and Networking

16:45 - 17:30 Keynote Speaker
Speaker: Libby Campbell OBE, MPhil, MSc, RN, RM. Director of Nursing, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh, AfPP Past President, Retired

17:30 - 18:00 Evaluation and Close
Speaker: Dawn Stott, CEO AfPP

19:30 - 24:30 Gala Dinner on University Campus

Programme: Sunday 22 June

09:30 – 10:30 Skills Workshop – Writing Skills
The workshop will introduce participants to the fun of writing for professional development. There are many different purposes for acquiring writing skills, some of which will be explored during the workshop. Led by Kate Woodhead, former AfPP President and author, this session will identify key phases in writing an article and some of the tips for success. There will be a ‘hands-on’ element – although do not expect to come away with a completed article! We will also look at some areas where we often go wrong and where editors and editorial board members can spend hours making corrections; The ‘Do’s and Don’ts of getting your article accepted.

10:45 – 11:45  Skills Workshop - One Together Project
Sponsor: [Image]
The UK OneTogether Programme: Reducing the risk of infection on the patients surgical pathway
An introduction to the OneTogether Collaboration that inspires healthcare professions to take action in reducing HCAIs. It will review standards and guidance around reducing the risk of infection during the patient journey and look at the governance around risk assessment and the skills required to support the implementation.

10:00 – 11:00  Advancing Surgical Roles Specialist Interest Group (SIG) Meeting
An opportunity for anyone undertaking an advanced role to come and discuss in an open forum problems and issues within your Trust. A look at best practice and the support AfPP can provide through this specialist interest group. It will provide an opportunity to review the Surgical First Assistant Toolkit as an aid to supporting you in your role.

11:45 – 12:15  Never Events update
Speaker: Mona Guckian-Fisher

12:15 – 12:30  Evaluation and Close
Speaker: Dawn Stott and Sue Lord

VENUE: University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton, BN1 9QU
SAT NAV: BN1 9QU
RAIL: Falmer train station is directly opposite the University campus – just follow the signs for the University of Sussex. Falmer is on the line between Brighton and Lewes, about eight minutes travel time in each direction, with trains running every 15 minutes. Visitors travelling via London and the west should take a train to Brighton and change there for Falmer. The journey time from London to Brighton is just under an hour. If you are coming from the east, you can also change at Lewes for Falmer. Find out more at www.nationalrail.co.uk

BUS: National Express coaches to Brighton depart from London Victoria Coach Station and arrive at Pool Valley in the centre of the city. Services are every hour in the centre of the day and take about two hours. Coaches also run to Brighton from Gatwick and Heathrow. From Pool Valley you need to walk 100 metres to the Old Steine where you can catch a bus direct to the University (see buses section below), or you can take a taxi. Find out more at www.nationalexpress.com

TAXI: Taxis are available at both Brighton and Lewes train stations and at many places in the centre of Brighton. It is about four miles (six kilometres) from central Brighton to the University. (There is no taxi service at Falmer station itself). It is often quicker to catch the train direct to Falmer from Brighton or Lewes.
DRIVING:  The University is at Falmer on the A27 between Brighton and Lewes, about four miles (six kilometres) from the centre of Brighton. (Please follow the signs for the University of Sussex on the north side of the A27; the University of Brighton also has a campus at Falmer on the south side of the A27). Visitors from London and the north should take the M23/A23 road towards Brighton. Before entering the centre of Brighton, join the A27 eastbound, signposted Lewes. Drivers from the east or west take the A27 direct to the University.

PARKING:  There is a daily parking charge for visitors, Monday to Friday, £4 for 4 hours. Parking is free over the weekend from 6pm on Friday evening.

LOCAL BUS:  The number 25 and 23 buses run between the centre of Brighton and the University, bringing you directly onto campus. In addition, the number 28 and 29 buses stop just outside the University on the A27 on their way to Lewes and beyond. Travel time is about 20-30 minutes. Bus timetables and information are available from www.buses.co.uk

AIR:  The closest airport to Brighton is London Gatwick, which is 30 minutes away by train. London Heathrow is around two hours away by coach. European budget airlines tend to fly to Luton, Stansted and London City airports, but please be aware that these are some distance away from Brighton, although public transport links are available.

Agenda may be subject to change.