

Join the conversation, join The Next Big Perioperative Natter

Wednesday 25 March 2026 from 7pm – 8pm

It's free!

The Next Big Perioperative Natter is about more than networking. It is about collective voice, shared experience and national insight, bringing together hundreds of simultaneous conversations into a single, powerful picture of perioperative practice in the UK.

If you are invested in safer surgery, professional practice and the future of perioperative care, don't miss this free live opportunity to have your say.